

Tuesday's breakout session to discuss operational phase of a repository

Questions:

1. What conditions must storage vessels and repository infrastructure fulfil in order to provide safety and retrievability during the operational phase of the repository?
2. What further research, development and demonstration activities are consequently needed to enable a repository to be developed?